This Friday afternoon, some of our children joined in with the Lenten Lunch at the Parish Hall. They spoke to parishioners about their Lenten promises, shared some of their R.E. work and said some prayers. All of this took place over a warming bowl of soup and a shared sense of appreciation for all the many blessings we have to be thankful for. The parishioners were so impressed with the children's work that they are going to publish it in an upcoming edition of the Blackpool Christian magazine, "Parish Pump"! Well done superstars! You represented our school so well and delighted the parishioners.
